You're back on track and now's the time to graduate, but you need flexibility in your daytime schedule and you want teachers who understand the way you learn. Graduation Alliance Academy may be the right choice for you!

- Use work-world technologies and have your own workspace in a comfortable, peaceful setting
- Have the direct support of a specially trained, dedicated teaching team working with you
- Experience learning in a positive, goal-oriented and confidence-building environment
- Work at your own pace and concentrate on 1-2 courses at a time
- Graduate with your West Jefferson High School diploma

THE PATH TO GRADUATION BEGINS WITH YOU!

Together, we start by assessing where you are academically and determine your Individualized Learning Plan (ILP). It will be tailored to your learning style and your life challenges. It's a plan that you take charge of – backed by:

- One-on-one instruction with your teachers
- Regularly scheduled time with your Academy support team to assess your progress
- Technology-assisted coursework options
- Small group learning experiences
